The Power of Asking for Help

Leadership is much more than having a vision – it's about carrying responsibility. In this short video, I reflect on the moments that shaped me as a leader, from the discipline required to ensure hundreds of people were paid on time, to the realization that asking for help isn't a weakness, but a strength.

I also share lessons around passion, when to take a stand, when to let things unfold, and how understanding that balance can define your leadership impact. These experiences, built over decades of entrepreneurship, continue to guide how I lead and how I support others on their journey.
